SAM SANCER.

September.

By John Tracy Jones.

In trailing robes of gold and crimson dressed, Serenely walks the woodland paths along.
The parting streamlet threads its course among Soft, fringing grasses which her feet have pressed.
Dame Nature greets her fair autumnal guest
With full, rich melody of wild birds' song;
While at her feet, a humbly reverent throne,
Each lowly aster bows its purple crest.
Beneath the steadfast gaze of her clear eye
The ivy blushes scarlet. All abroad The maples lift their flaming torches high
To light her way where late the summer trod.
So 'mid green fern and tossing goldenrod September walks 'neath autumn's radiant sky.

Letter from Limestone County.

Ben Hur, Sept. 18
Editor The Eagle:
Formerly a resident of Brazos county and having many relatives, friends and acquaintances in said county, I concluded to communicate a few local dots to your neway columns.

This is a section of country of wonderful possibilities; rich in soil, grand in proportions, the scenic loveliness of which are inadequate to portray. There is not little diversification in farming, corn and cotton being chief products, and strange as it may appear and not unlike many other localities, but few farmers raise a sufficiency of meat for home purposes, while gardens are but little cultivated, hence the scarcity of vegetables.

The soil is adapted to all cereals of a temperate and many of the semi tropical plants. Cotton picking is the order of the day, and the early whistle of the guns daily admonish farmers that early rising is necessary to keep the machinery running. Boll worms and sharp shooters damaged the crop 30 per cent and the best worms are now playing havoc with young cotton. Corn will average 35 bushels per acre. The oat, millet and sorghum crops were fine.
Ben Hur is a quiet little village, surrounded by a labyrinth of beauty and fertility of soil. Here is where the average farmer lives in the sunlight of prosperity and happiness and the average scholar resumes his wonted way.

Mr. John Neeley and family of Well-born, Brazos county, spent several days visiting relatives and friends here recently and says Brazos is the banner county in the state.

The matrimonial market is dull. The lovels are collections but the maids appear indifferent to the supplanting en-tretries.

Long live Sayers, the champion of the people.

The Messrs. Christies and their interesting families, formerly from your county are here and on the up grade.

Wishing my old Brazos county friends success, I am most respectfully

E. B. Sherrod.

SOME ORDERS ISSUED BY GENERAL GOMEZ.

He instructs the Cuban Army to Obey the Orders of the Office of the American Army.

New York, Sept. 22.—The Press says:
The following general order issued by General Gomez with respect to the attitude of the Cuban army in regard to the evacuation by Spanish forces of the towns and villages and the subjugation of the Cuban army to the military authorities of the American commanders, has reached the Cuban junta.

The time having arrived when the Spanish forces are to evacuate the towns and villages and the population being not longer subjected to their authority which is now to be delegated to the Americans through the medium of the revolutionary party as our allies may deem advisable, I believe it proper that I should publish the following:

"The former orders of the council of the provisional government of Cuba with regard to the attitude of our forces upon entering conquered territory in time of war will be strictly observed in the occupation of towns and villages evacuated by the enemy. The rights of property shall be respected and persons shall be unmolested in the performance of their duties and in obedience to the laws. Without distinction as to race or color the flag of Cuba shall protect all citizens alike as well as their property.
In assisting in the control of towns and villages evacuated and in the negotiations which may be necessary, no terms shall be imposed by our army with the idea of humiliation, but at the same time the honor of our arms and the dignity of our cause shall always be preserved. The American forces will have full authority and it will be the duty of the Cuban forces to assist and aid them in the proceedings. All malefactors or enemies of the public order will be punished according to the laws of common justice.

"The flag of the republic of Cuba will always be respected, but it must be understood that the American forces will be in authority and have the enforcement of all laws which the army of liberation will be called upon to obey. The alliance of our forces with those of the Americans has placed a new phase upon the conduct of affairs which will lead to the evacuation of all Spanish forces from all towns, cities and villages in Cuba and in all instances the Americans will have superiority over the Cubans. At the same time it is understood that the superiority is not for the purpose of subjugating the Cuban forces to any other orders than those governed by the rules of war and in accordance with our alliance.

"Our army is in no way humiliated, but is rather honored by such an alliance and will cooperate in every way with the American forces to expedite the evacuation of the forces of the enemy to the end that Cuba may be quickly rid of her erstwhile enemy. All chiefs of divisions will see that they place themselves in communication with the commander of the American forces when the proper time arrives and will station their forces according to the assignments designated by the American commanders."
